12 WHY TRAVEL WITH US

DESTINATIONS

AMBOSELI NATIONAL PARK & MAASAI MARA

An unforgettable journey into the wild heart of Africa: the untamed land of the Maasai Mara, with its infinite sunsets across the savannah and the world's highest concentration of wildlife; and the majestic realm of elephants—Amboseli, where we'll encounter one of the last 'big tuskers' on Earth.

We will inevitably catch the so-called 'Africa bug,' often described by fellow travelers as an irresistible urge to return.

Kenya is pure, primal adventure. Feel it.

WHO WE ARE

MARINA CANO

Marina Cano is an internationally acclaimed wildlife photographer from Cantabria, Spain, known for her emotional and intimate approach to capturing nature. Her work has graced the covers of publications around the world, including National Geographic. She has authored four books.

She is a European ambassador for Canon and Skylum and has collaborated with brands like Cotton Carrier, ThinkTank, Western Digital, and Banana Republic. She is a three-time Wildlife Photographer of the Year finalist.

Marina holds an honorary doctorate from the University of Bogotá and a degree in music. She has exhibited and lectured across the globe. Her artistic sensitivity and unique approach have captivated over a million social media followers. Deeply passionate about Africa and conservation, she actively supports various foundations protecting endangered species.

MERCHE LLOBERA

Driven by a passion for the animal kingdom and a natural-born adventurer, Merche Llobera has traveled the globe sharing oceans and landscapes with wild creatures, capturing their essence in every photograph. Her work has been published in specialized media and recognized in international competitions such as Ocean Photographer of the Year, European Wildlife Photographer of the Year, Nature TTL, Siena Awards, and MontPhoto. She was part of the Spanish team in the World Photographic Cup (2023–2025), twice awarded 'Best of Nation' and winner of the 2025 gold medal in the Nature/Wildlife category.

Through her images, she aims to raise awareness about the need to conserve animals and their habitats. In 2022, she mentored the AFRISOS photography program in Tanzania and has spoken at events like Exodus Aveiro Fest, AEFONA, and MontPhoto.

She has also contributed to MOTHER magazine, highlighting the connection between humans and nature.

ACCOMMODATION

MAASAI MARA: MARA BUSH CAMP

The Mara Bush Camp is located just eight minutes from the Ol Kiombo airstrip, nestled along the banks of the Olare Orok River with its impressive hippo pool.

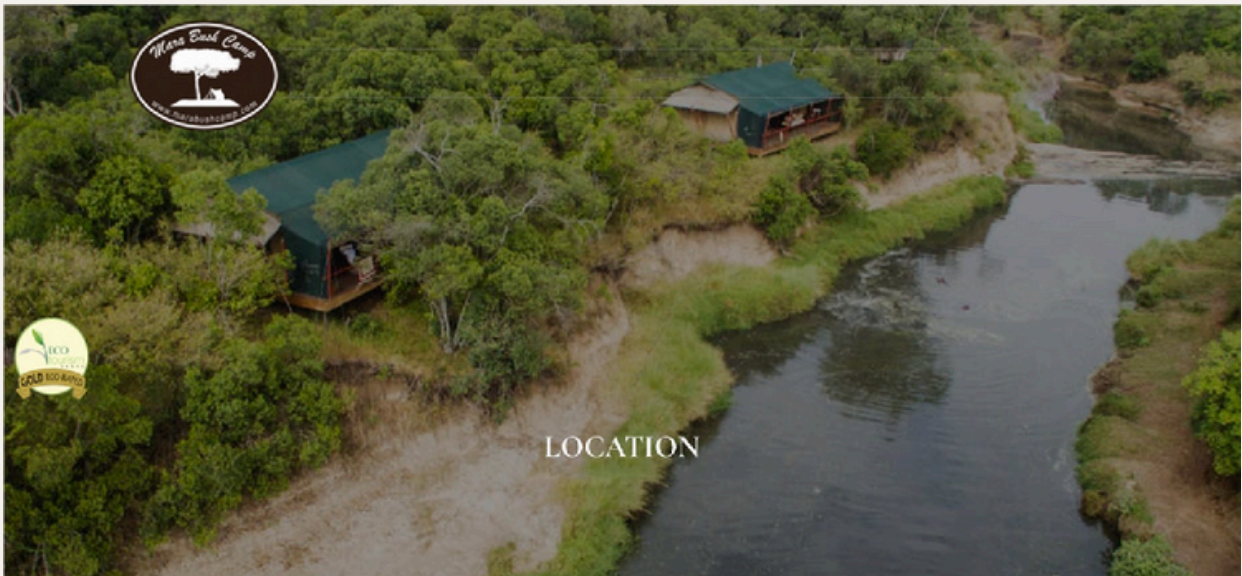

Situated in the heart of the Maasai Mara Reserve, it offers a unique, eco-friendly, and luxurious lodging experience with highly attentive service.

The camp was designed to minimize its environmental footprint. It operates on solar energy, features handmade furniture crafted from sustainable wood, and has received recognition for eliminating single-use plastics.

This camp is located within the 'big cat territory' and near key migration crossing points, providing year-round wildlife encounters.

MARA BUSH CAMP

ACCOMMODATION

AMBOSELI: OL TUKAI

Ol Tukai Lodge is set at the foot of Mount Kilimanjaro, surrounded by breathtaking landscapes and distinctive wildlife.

The luxury chalet-style rooms offer uninterrupted views of the wetlands and Kilimanjaro, creating a warm, homely ambiance.

Located within Amboseli National Park—renowned for its elephant population—the lodge has been praised for its beauty and setting.

Evenings are magical with traditional dining and entertainment by local Maasai warriors. Under the stars, guests enjoy meals crafted by our renowned chef, followed by fireside storytelling.
